THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

As they are Written in the Twentieth Chapter of the Book of Exodus.

GOD SPAKE ALL THESE WORDS, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep my commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbors.

The Summary of the Law by our Lord Jesus Christ.

St. Matthew, xxii: 37-40.

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

THE APOSTLES' CREED.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord;

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary;

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell;

The third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;

From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost:

The Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints: The forgiveness of sins:

The resurrection of the body:

And the life everlasting. Amen

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

OUR FATHER which art in heaven. Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Preface.

“THE CHURCH AND HOME HYMNAL” is designed as a book of GENERAL PRAISE; words and music being selected from the BEST AUTHORS and COMPOSERS; eliminating, as far as possible, everything that is denominational, and securing a book of GEMS of SACRED MUSIC, suited to the church at large, with the hope of stimulating a WIDER ACTIVITY in CONGREGATIONAL SINGING.

It is a noticeable fact that not even TEN PER CENT of the Hymns and Tunes, bound in our best church hymnals, are used with such frequency as to render them familiar.

This volume forms a SELECT LIBRARY of the best of the old and familiar hymns and tunes, such as the whole congregation may sing with pleasure and profit in Church, Sunday School and Praise Service.

This book contains over 500 Hymns and Tunes, exclusive of Chants, Glorias, and Prayers. There are 390 pages of music, each page of which is equal in convenience to a piece of sheet music in the hands of a singer, because of the words being printed between the braces and so divided as to render both words and music easy to read.

It is a mistake to suppose that children cannot sing good music as well as that which is LIGHT and FRIVOLOUS. Much depends, however, upon the RHYTHM, or movement of the TUNE. The fact of its being well harmonized and difficult to perform in parts, does not militate against its use by young people, who mainly SING THE MELODY. The difficulty lies in its having NO MELODY or TUNE of sufficient STRENGTH and CHARACTER to make it successful in CONGREGATIONAL SINGING.

The best church tunes are too simple as MUSICAL COMPOSITIONS to become STUMBLING BLOCKS to either old or young, and sufficient attention has never been paid in this country to the introduction into the SPECIAL SERVICES of young people and children of such CHURCH MUSIC as will always INTEREST them and secure their SWEET VOICES in the regular SERVICES of the church.

The book contains about 150 new Tunes, most of which were written for the purpose of doubling LONG, COMMON, or SHORT METRES, and the introduction of ODD METRES in place of so many old-time LONG, COMMON, and SHORT METRES, and the addition of CAROLS, CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR and other music, for special occasions. The book will be found invaluable to CHOIRS, for short pieces, which may be used as VOLUNTARIES or OFFERTORIES.

I acknowledge, gratefully, the valuable services of Mr. F. N. Shepperd, Organist of St. James' Church, Fordham, N. Y., in the musical arrangement of this work, and of Rev. W. F. Anderson, Pastor of the Reformed Church of Fordham, in the adjustment of topics and other details. Thanks are also due to Mr. H. P. Main, Albert J. Holden, and Dr. H. R. Palmer, all of whom are contributors to the work, for valuable services rendered.

Special thanks are due to Rev. Dr. Tucker for the use of hymns and tunes selected from his book entitled “HYMNS OLD AND NEW,” also to A. S. Barnes & Co. and others, from whose works selections have been made.

Samuel M. Bixby.

 A joyful song I'll raise ;

 To utter all Thy praise. AMEN.

3 The earth, with its store
Of wonders untold,
Almighty, Thy power
Hath founded of old—
Hath established it fast
By a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast,
Like a mantle, the sea.

4 Thy bountiful care
What tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air,
It shines in the light;
It streams from the hills;
It descends from the plain,
And sweetly distils
In the dew and the rain.

5 O measureless might,
Ineffable Love!
While angels delight
To hymn Thee above,
The ransomed creation,
Though feeble their lays,
With true adoration
Shall list to Thy praise. AMEN.

O God, Thy Power is Wonderful

Frederick W. Faber

There's a kindness in His jus - tice,
There is no place where earth's fail-ings
And the heart of the E - ter - nal

There is wel-come for the sin - ner,

In the blood that has been shed;
We should take Him at His word;

There is mer-cy with the Sav - iour;

Awake, my Soul, to Joyful Lays

Samuel Medley, 1780

 2. He saw me ru - in'd in the fall, Yet loved me, not - with - stand - ing all;
 3. Tho' numerous hosts of might - y foes, Tho' earth and hell my way op - pose,

PRAISE TO CHRIST

He just-ly claims a song from thee : His lov-ing-kind-ness, O how free!
 He saved me from my lost es-tate ; His lov-ing-kind-ness, O how great !
 He safe-ly leads my soul a-long ; His lov-ing-kind-ness, O how strong !

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
 Has gathered thick, and thunder'd loud,
 He near my soul has always staid ;
 His loving kindness, O how good !

5 Often I feel my sinful heart
 Prone from my Saviour to depart,
 But though I oft have Him forgot,
 His loving-kindness changes not!

6 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
 Soon all my mortal powers must fail ;
 O may my last expiring breath
 His loving-kindness sing in death !

Why should the Children of a King

Isaac Watts

Rev. J. B. Dykes

106 Oh, Love, how Deep! how Broad! how High

John M. Neale, tr.

Rev. J. B. Dykes

1. Oh, love, how deep! how broad! how high! It fills the heart with ec - sta - sy,
 2. He sent no an - gel to our race, Of high - er or of low - er place,
 3. For us bap - tized, for us He bore His ho - ly fast, and hun - gered sore;
 4. For us He prayed, for us He taught, For us His dai - ly works He wrought,

That God, the Son of God, should take Our mor - tal form, for mor - tal's sake.
 But wore the robe of hu - man frame, And He Him - self to this world came.
 For us temp - ta - tions sharp He knew, For us the tempt - er o - ver - threw.
 By words and signs and ac - tions thus Still seek - ing, not Him - self, but us.

5 For us, to wicked men betrayed,
 Scourged, mocked, in crown of thorns arrayed,
 He bore the shameful cross and death;
 For us at length gave up His breath.

6 To Him, whose boundless love has won
 Salvation for us through His Son,
 To God the Father glory be,
 Both now and through eternity.

The Voice of Free Grace

Thornby

Dr. John Clarke

1. The voice of free grace cries, Es-cape to the mountain; For Ad-am's lost race Christ hath o-pen'd a fountain; { For sin and un-cleanness, And Al-le-lu-ia to the Lamb, Who hath ev-'ry trans-gres-sion, His blood flows most free-ly In streams of sal-bought us our par-don; We'll praise Him a-gain, When we pass o-ver

va-tion; His blood flows most free-ly In... streams of sal-va-tion. }
Jor-dan; We'll praise Him a-gain.. When we pass o-ver Jor-dan. } A-MEN.

2 Ye souls that are wounded,
To Jesus repair;
He calls you in mercy,
And can you forbear?
Though your sins be as scarlet,
Still flee to the mountain,
That blood can remove them
Which streams from this fountain.
Alleluia, etc.

3 O Jesus! ride onward,
Triumphantly glorious:
O'er sin, death, and hell
Thou'rt more than victorious;

Thy Name is the theme
Of the great congregation,
While angels and saints
Raise the shout of salvation. Alleluia, etc.

4 With joy shall we stand
When escaped to that shore;
With our harps in our hand
We will praise Him the more;
We'll range the sweet fields
On the banks of the river,
And sing of salvation
For ever and ever.
Alleluia, etc. AMEN.

Oh hast-en His sweet voice to hear,... And hum-bly be-fore Him to bow,

He on - ly re-stores you the light— The Sav-iour is call-ing for you!
Oh come, while He's wait-ing so near,... And ten-der-ly call-ing for you!
While still He is wait-ing so near;— For Je - sus is call-ing you now!

 3. When pen-i-tence has wept in vain O-ver some foul, dark spot,
 4. 'Tis Je-sus' blood, that wash-es white, His hand, that brings re-lief;
 5. Lift up Thy bleed-ing hand, O Lord! Un-seal that cleans-ing tide;

One on-ly hand, a pierc-ed hand, Can heal the sin-ner's wound,
 One on-ly heart, a brok-en heart, Can feel the sin-ner's woe.
 One on-ly stream, a stream of blood, Can wash a-way the blot.
 His heart, that's touch'd with all our joys, And feel-eth for our grief.
 We have no shel-ter from our sin, But in Thy wound-ed side.

Saviour, when in Dust to TheeSir Robert Grant. 1815B. Case

1 { Sav-iour, when in dust to Thee, Low we bend th'a-dor-ing knee; }
 { When, re-pent-ant, to the skies Scarce we lift our stream-ing eyes; }
 2 { By Thy birth and ear-ly years, By Thy hu-man griefs and fears, }
 { By Thy fast-ing and dis-tress In the lone-ly wil-der-ness, }

O by all Thy pain and woe, Suf-fered once for man be-low,
 By Thy vic-tory in the hour Of the sub-tle tempt-er's power;

Bend - ing from Thy throne on high, Hear our sol - emn lit - a - ny.
 Je - sus, look with pity - ing eye; Hear our sol - emn lit - a - ny. A - MEN.

3 By Thy conflict with despair,
 By Thine agony of prayer,
 By the purple robe of scorn,
 By Thy wounds, Thy crown of thorn,
 By Thy cross, Thy pangs, and cries,
 By Thy perfect sacrifice;
 Jesus, look with pitying eye;
 Hear our solemn litany.

4 By Thy deep expiring groan,
 By the seal'd sepulchral stone,
 By Thy triumph o'er the grave,
 By Thy power from death to save;
 Mighty God, ascended Lord,
 To Thy throne in heaven restored,
 Prince and Saviour, hear our cry,
 Hear our solemn litany. AMEN.

Weary of Wandering from my God

Rev. C. Wesley, 1749

W. Shore

1. Wea - ry of wand - ring from my God, And now made will - ing to re - turn,
 2. O Je - sus, full of pard - ning grace, More full of grace than I of sin ;
 3. Thou know'st the way to bring me back, My fall - en spir - it to re - store .

I hear and bow me to the rod, For Thee, not with - out hope, I mourn ;
 Yet once a - gain I seek Thy face : O - pen Thine arms and take me in ;
 O for Thy truth and mer - cy's sake, For - give, and bid me sin no more :

I have an Ad - vo - cate a - bove, A Friend be - fore the throne of Love.
 And free - ly my back - slid - ings heal, And love the faith - less sin - ner still.
 The ru - ins of my soul re - pair, And make my heart a house of prayer. A - MEN.

 Thou might'st leave me, but the rath-er Let Thy mer-cy light on me—Ev - en me.
 I am long-ing for Thy fa-vor, Whilst Thou'rt calling, oh, call me—Ev - en me.
 Wit-ness-er of Je-sus' mer-it, Speak the word of power to me—Ev - en me.

 Long been slighting, grieving Thee?
 Has the world my heart been keeping?
 Oh, forgive and rescue me—Even me.

6 Love of God, so pure and changeless;
 Blood of Christ, so rich and free;
 Grace of God, so strong and boundless,
 Magnify it all in me—Even me.

7 Pass me not, but, pardon bringing,
 Bind my heart, O Lord, to Thee;
 Whilst the streams of life are springing,
 Blessing others, oh, bless me—Even me.

J. Hullah

1. Je - sus, my Sav - iour! look on me, For I am wea - ry and op - prest ;
 2. Look down on me, for I am weak, I feel the toil - some journey's length ;
 3. I am be - wil - der'd on my way, Dark and tem - pes - tuous is the night ;

 Thine aid om - nip - o - tent I seek : Thou art... my... Strength.

 E'en to the end, what'e'r befall ;
 Through life, in death, eternally,
 Thou art my All.

 Des-o-late, be-reft, a-lone, Sav-iour, com-fort, com-fort me!
 Bid me in Thy love con-fide; Sav-iour, com-fort, com-fort me!

 If Thou wilt but ten-der-ly, Sav-iour, com-fort, com-fort me!

Before the Throne of God above

Mrs. C. L. Bancroft

R. Langdon

1. Be-fore the throne of God a-bove I have a strong, a per-fect plea—
 2. My name is grav-en on His hands, My name is writ-ten on His heart;
 3. When Sa-tan tempts me to de-spair, And tells me of the guilt with-in,
 4. Be-cause the sin-less Sav-iour died, My sin-ful soul is count-ed free;

A great High Priest, whose name is Love, Who ev-er lives and pleads for me.
 I know that while in heaven He stands, No tongue can bid me thence de-part.
 Up-ward I look, and see Him there Who made an-erd to all my sin.
 For God, the Just, is sat-is-fied To look on Him, and par-don me.
 My life is hid with Christ on high, With Christ, my Sav-iour and my God.

1. Oh, for a clos - er walk with God, A calm and heavenly frame ;..

A light to shine up - on the road That leads me to the Lamb!..

How sweet their memory still!
But they that left an aching void

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made you mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road

 Faint not, till in glo-ry Gleams our Fa-ther's face. For-ward, all the life-time,

 What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine:
 I only yield Thee what is Thine;

 Blend it with Thine, and take away
 All that now makes it hard to say
 "Thy will be done!"

 With Thy sweet Spirit for its Guest,
 My God, to Thee I leave the rest!
 "Thy will be done!"

 The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
 I'll sing upon a happier shore,
 "Thy will be done!"

To Thy Pastures fair and large

James Merrick

J. G. Bitthauer, 1785

1. To Thy pas-tures fair and large, Heav'n-ly Shep-herd, lead Thy charge,
 2. When I faint with sum-mer's heat, Thou shalt guide my wea-ry feet
 3. Safe the drear-y vale I tread, By the shades of death o'er-spread,

And my couch, with tend'rest care, 'Mid the spring-ing grass pre-pare.
 To the streams that, still and slow, Through the ver-dant mead-ows flow.
 With Thy rod and staff sup-plied, This my guard—and that my guide.
 And shalt bid Thy hal-lowed dome Yield me an e-ter-nal home.

 There rolls the deep and unknown stream
 That leads at last to light.

 Are slipping on the brink,
 And I, to-day, am nearer home,—
 Nearer than now I think.

 Strengthen my power of faith!
 Nor let me stand, at last, alone
 Upon the shore of death.

Yet this is my en-deav-or, And this one thing I do...
 And with my best en-deav-or, Lord, this one thing I do...
 And help my weak en-deav-or, While this one thing I do...

I'll leave the past that I de-plore, And seeking things that are be-fore,
 Since Thou hast died my debt to pay, Since Thou hast washed my sins-a-way,
 Since Thou hast shed Thy blood for me, I con-se-crate my life to Thee;

I will press on to win the prize That waits for me be-yond the skies!
 I trust Thy blood and right-eous-ness, And t'ward the prize I on-ward press.
 And trust Thy mer-cy and Thy grace To help me on to win the race.

The night-tide bringeth us slumbers deep, By His dear grace Who shared our sleep, rall. e dim.

Once on earth, Once on earth.

2 Here on earth
Our Saviour suffered birth,
While angels smote their harps of flame;
And thrilled the stars with glad acclaim;
Peace on earth.

3 May His peace
Upon the earth increase
Till all hearts bow to His diadem,
And hail the Babe of Bethlehem,
Prince of Peace.

While with Ceaseless Course the Sun

Rev. J. Newton, 1770

1. While with cease-less course the sun Hast-ed thro' the form-er year,

Man-y souls their race have run, Nev-er more to meet us here:
 As the light-ning from the skies Darts, and leaves no trace be-hind;
 Teach us hence-forth how to live With e-ter-ni-ty in view:

Fixed in an e-ter-nal state, They have done with all be-low:
 Swift-ly thus our fleet-ing days Bear us down life's rap-id stream;
 Bless Thy word to young and old; Fill us with a Sav-iour's love;

We a lit-tle long-er wait, But how lit-tle, none can know.
 Up-ward, Lord, our spir-its raise; All be-low is but a dream.
 And when life's short tale is told, May we dwell with Thee a-bove. A-MEN.

 Him by whom our spirits live:
 Undivided adoration
 To the one Jehovah give.

 TO GOD the Father's throne
 Your highest honors raise;
 Glory to God the Son;
 To God, the Spirit, praise;
 With all our powers, Eternal King,
 Thy name we sing, while faith adores.

PRAYERS.

WE thank Thee our Heavenly Father that Thou hast not ordained that they who approach Thee should come with a perfect heart and a perfect utterance; then only those who are ripened in the very light of Thy countenance and in the everlasting summer of heaven could speak to Thee. But what do they need of Prayer? Why should they call out, who are without temptations, without sorrow, without any weakness, without infirmities and trials. It is those who are tossed below who need to speak to Thee, and if Thou wouldst accept no offering of our lips but a perfect offering, we would be dumb. Blessed be Thy name! Thou dost hear with Thine heart, Thy pity listens, and Thy compassion, which has spared, and spares still; that goodness which loves to find a way of excuse, and release, and relief, Thou hast for every one of us. And we draw near to Thee, encouraged with this thought, that Thou art our Father which art in Heaven.

For Thy unwearied love, that nourishes when it might destroy, we thank Thee. We pray that a sense of God's goodness may lead us to repentance. We pray that Thou wilt have mercy upon those who are weak—we need to be born as little children and to be borne with—teach us patience and how to edify one another. Open a way to those who find themselves shut up and know not whither to turn—who seem alone—be Thou more than friend or friendship to them. Thou who dost bear time in thine own heart. Thou who dost wear out the spheres with the freshness of Thine enduring youth. O, do Thou teach them that Thou art always a refuge and a friend—an everlasting protector.

Glorify Thyself in the lives of Thy people, make them more and more holy that they may be a blessing to men. Deliver them from vanity and ostentation, from spiritual pride, and from all things that are offensive, and untrue before God or men. Make them full of kindness and gentleness. May Thy people love one another; and so with a spirit of unfeigned love bring on that final day of glory when all Thy Church on earth shall be one. When there shall be no more divisions, where the heart shall be united, and sanctified by the Spirit of God. Wilt Thou hear us in our petitions, and answer us for Christ's sake. Amen.

OUR Father in heaven, Creator, and Sustainer of all things, we give Thee thanks for the earth and the fulness thereof, for the day, and the night, for seasons; for the display of Thy great goodness, wisdom, and power in nature. We thank Thee for the revelations made to us through the Scriptures, and through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Saviour—for their redemptive power—their sanctifying efficacy—their immortal hopes. Behind all law and within all displays of creative life, and incarnate love, we believe Thou art dwelling in the light that no man can see and live. Through this which is known we adore Thee, and Thy unknown greatness, glory and infinite goodness; Thy saving compassion, and Thy love which passeth knowledge. Since Thou hast placed us in the midst of things so great, changing and mysterious; uphold us with a sense of Thy presence, and that it is Thy purpose that these tides of Thy creative bounty, and power are to carry us to Thee; and that we shall find Thee after Thou hast enlightened the confusion of our understanding, and made us to become used to Thy great, and good ways. We look to Thee in faith, endure sorrow, bear loss, seek knowledge, and ever ask the continual revelation of Thyself, especially through the spiritual laws and lessons of Jesus, who came to bring life and immortality to light in the gospel, and who said, "What I do thou knowest not now but thou shalt know hereafter." Amen.

OUR heavenly Father, we kneel in this house consecrated by a thousand gifts of grace from Thy hand. We cannot look back, our way is hedged up with mercies, and we stand upon the beginning of another week, desiring to take encouragement from the past, and to look down into the future with full assurance of Faith. Be pleased this morning, Thou who art the head of the Church, and the Father of this household; be pleased to bless us. In the opening of the services of the day, may we feel that Thou art with us. Out of Thine infinite fulness clothe our poverty to-day. Give us bread from our Father's table. Reach forth Thy hand which hath in it the keys of life and death. Open the doors of our understanding, and open the doors of our hearts, and bring forth into life every grateful thought, every sweet and divine affection, and fill us this day with the spirit of devotion. May we know how to call Thee Father from the swellings of our hearts. May we know how to thank Thee. How to rejoice in Thee. How boldly to express our gladness, and every feeling which comes from our hearts towards Thee. May we be blessed in Thy word, in its reading, and in meditation of its truths. May we be blessed in prayer. May we know the way as Thine angels know it, up through the trackless air by faith, to Thy throne. May we be blessed in the fellowship of song; rejoice together, and sing with the innumerable throng that hymn around about Thee in Heaven, joining our imperfect songs to their glorious anthems. May the whole earth, and all the realm of the universe praise Thee this day. We ask it for Christ's sake. Amen.

GOD of the sabbath and of the sanctuary; in Thy house of prayer, manifest Thyself to us in the fulness of Thy grace, clothe Thy ministers with salvation, and let Thy chosen people be glad; hear the hosannas of the children, and bless Thy word to old and young. Increase Thy whole Church, and fill the earth with Thy glory. Graciously be with those whose Sabbath shall be spent in the chamber of solitude and sickness. Let the consolations of Thy spirit abound in the children of sorrow, and suffering, and bereavement. To Thee, heavenly Father, we commend ourselves. O Thou good shepherd, watch over us. O Holy Ghost, the comforter, hallow our thoughts and comfort our hearts. May all who are united to us, be with us united to Thee, and come to the presence of the Father with exceeding joy; and to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost be glory everlasting. Amen.

OH LORD, Who art acquainted with all the manifold interests of men we seek Thee, and bring to Thee all that Thou hast caused us to possess—that it may receive Thy blessing. As the light of day gives life to the earth, so let Thy spirit cleanse and regulate our lives. We thank Thee that we are coming to Thee through time, through experiences of joy and sorrow. We thank Thee for what our eyes have seen and our souls have known of Thy dealings with men. Suffer us to add to our faith virtue, knowledge, patience, temperance, godliness, brotherly kindness and charity. We turn from our failures anew to Thee. Hungering, after righteousness not alone for ourselves, but for those whom, by the frailty of our life, we have offended; and for all mankind overcome by the desires of the flesh and wilfulness of the spirit. When two of us agree as touching any one thing it shall be done unto us; how surely then shall our lives be now renewed; and understanding that Thy purpose is to forgive, cleanse, heal, defend and remember whosoever cometh to Thee, we go forth from Thy presence grateful this day, asking for a personal sense of safety and guidance in the name of Him who said, “in the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.” Amen.

O GOD, to whom the whole history of our home is known, we ask of Thy Fatherly love, that Thou wouldst take the charge, and development of this household upon Thyself. Instruct us in the responsibilities of our relationships; give us the spirit to exercise control, or yield obedience. May all the converse, the companionship, the duties and the pleasures of home; train our spirits to love, ennoble our dispositions, and make us heartily ready to serve one another and strong to withstand the subtleties, and bitter temptations to sin. Make us honest and candid, as we see the peace and joy of open-heartedness. As we learn the mutual helpfulness of service, strengthen each one of us to fulfil faithfully our daily tasks. Oh Thou who knewest the years of toil keep us from half-hearted and ill-accomplished work. Thou didst with great patience, and suffering finish the work given Thee to do. As Thou didst live, so may we in daily tasks until we hear Thee say, "well done good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things." Give us a sense of the divine appointment of daily toil, and therefore its majesty, responsibility, reward and joy. May our home, and the homes of this nation be reared upon industry, frugality, temperance and honesty. We commit ourselves to Thy Fatherly care in the name of our Saviour, who said "For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things." Amen.

O LORD, bless our home this day, be with us in our going out and our coming in, deliver us from temptations; defend us from dangers, direct us in our studies, strengthen us for our work. Heal those who are sick. Guard the little children. Teach us to trust Thee, to obey our parents, and superiors; to love one another; to control our thoughts and lives. Bless our parents, pastors and teachers. Make all homes Christian. Give the spirit of obedience to law, unto all peoples, and the spirit of righteousness to all rulers. Hasten the coming of the days of the Son of Man, when all the earth shall know of Thy salvation. This we ask with the forgiveness of our sins for Jesus' sake. Amen.

O GOD, who maketh the outgoing of the morning and evening to rejoice! we bless Thee for Thy preserving care; conscious of our weakness; humbly confessing our sins, we cast ourselves upon Thine infinite grace, in Christ Jesus our Saviour, for pardon, strength and sanctification. May we as a family honor Thee in our daily walk, and conversation. May old, and young know the beauty of holiness, and the joy of consecration to Christ. Grant Thy peace to all who are dear to us and grant us grace to hold all men dear for Christ's sake, and to win them to the knowledge of His gospel. May the peace of God which passeth all understanding keep our hearts, and minds in the knowledge, and love of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
